Yard Care: By Committee

Message from Chairman Betsy: Thank you to those that helped with clubhouse yard clean-up on April 18. We got a lot done and the grounds look good. Thank you to Carol McAdoo's husband Richard who took out the rain barrel at the front of the clubhouse and installed new gutter. The rain barrel was clogged and not being used, so we sold it at the May 6th Plant Sale/Exchange for $10. We had a lot of nice plants to exchange or sell and raised $183 (including rain barrel). Thank you to those that contributed plants and to those who helped sell the plant.

May Activities: Tour of nurseries in the Swansboro area is planned for Tuesday May 16. Meet at the clubhouse at 8:15 am and car pool. We will visit J & S Nursery, Carolina Home and Garden Nursery and Redfern's Nursery with lunch at the Icehouse Waterfront Restaurant. Please let Anne Parker know if you will be attending so lunch reservations can be made by May 12. See attached detailed schedule.

June Activities: A workshop on planting pots is planned with Rachel Tipton on Tuesday June 20 at Harborside Nursery. More information will be coming from Elizabeth Buckman.

Yard of the Month: Congratulations to Josiah Hoffman and Susan Dillard, 1204 Lupton Drive, Oriental, for winning the May YOM and thank you to Carol Herman and Debbie Montgomery for judging. June judges are Jean Chastang and Suzanne Jantzen. Lee Duer and Linda Parker are July judges. August judges are Elizabeth Buckman and her husband.

Other Activities:

- The OWC June meeting is a pot luck luncheon to celebrate our scholarship winners. The doors open at 11:30 am on Tuesday June 6. Bring a covered dish to feed 6 to 8.
- Fay Bond is asking for help in organizing a b-b-q from Moore's Restaurant to raise funds for cemetery maintenance. Please let her know if you can help.
