

Oriental Woman's Club Garden Club
November 19, 2019 Minutes

Members present were Lee Duer, Elsie Roane, Jean Chastang, Anne Parker, Nancy McGruther, Sharon Morgan, Linda Parker, Carol Herman, Carol Huckle, Gail Radosevich, Gwen Rhodes, Betsy Hughes and Lynne Kaplan.

Lee Duer began by giving instructions for the ornaments to be made for the Post Office Tree and Town Hall. Work started on these ornaments.

Approximately 9:45 am Linda Parker announced that Rachel Tipton from Harbourside Garden Center and Ellen Blackmon would be attending our Christmas Luncheon at Morgan's on December 17, 11:30 am. Secret Santa gifts should be wrapped and cost $15-$20. Guests are welcome and should bring a gift if participation is desired. She added that there is an Open House at Harbourside Garden Center Friday through Sunday after Thanksgiving and there were many interesting gifts available.

Decoration of Trees at the Post Office and Town Hall will take place after the OWC Holiday Luncheon on December 3. Town Hall tree to be decorated by Lee Duer, Linda Parker and Nancy McGruther. Post Office tree to be decorated by Anne Parker, Jennifer Walsh and Michele Musella. On January 2, 10 am the take down of the Town Hall tree will be accomplished by Gail Radosevich and Carol Huckle. Anne Parker and Carol Herman are doing the Post Office tree.

Linda Parker listed the following for officers in 2020:

Chairman: Linda Parker

Secretary & EC Representative: Jean Chastang

Members volunteered for the following:

Road Clean Up: Lynne Kaplan & Gail Radosevich

Hostesses: Betsy Hughes

Yard of the Month: Lee Duer

It was decided to forgo the duty of a Garden Club Newsletter. Items of interest & dates of meetings, etc. will be posted in the OWC newsletter. The January meeting will be discussion of speakers, field trips, etc. for 2020. Linda Parker asked all members to come with ideas and information on what they would like to do in 2020.

There being no further business, meeting was adjourned and work on ornaments resumed.

Submitted by

Jean Chastang, Secretary