

“Women together, making a difference”

The Oriental Woman’s Club’s purpose has always been to be an asset to the community. The club is organized exclusively for charitable purposes and is a non-profit within the meaning of Section 501(c)(3), therefore, donations are tax deductible.

Community Service:

Local Fire Depts. & other Non-profit org. – OWC raises money to support many non-profit organizations in Pamlico County.

Adopt-A-Highway – The club maintains a 2 mile stretch of NC Hwy 55 through Oriental.

Arts Festivals – OWC sponsors a local festival leading to a statewide competition for students in arts & crafts as well as performing arts.

Oriental Cemetery – Care and maintenance of the Blackwell Point Cemetery is the longest on-going community service project of the OWC.

Meals on Wheels – Cooperative relationship with Pamlico County Senior Services in the delivery of meals to the homebound in Oriental.

Scholarships – OWC awards two scholarships to Pamlico County students each year as well as sponsoring students for two statewide scholarships.

Special Interest:

Ladies of the Neuse – Members of OWC whose home and career responsibilities keep them from taking part in daytime activities.

Garden Club – Members meet at clubhouse for interesting gardening programs and field trips.

Bridge & Yoga – Also available.

Clubhouse – Available for rent.
