

Oriental Womans Club December 3, 2019 General Meeting and Luncheon

The meeting was called to order by President Gwen Rhodes at 12:00 PM. Gwen welcomed all of our guests to the event and how they helped support our activities. See attachment 1 of Gwens statements.

The inspirational reading was done by our Inspirational Leader, Lynn Rousseau. Carol Mc Adoo read a blessing for the group.

Lunch was then served. During dessert several table games were played (see attachment 3).

The meeting resumed with the installation of officers officiated by Sharon Morgan. See attachment 2

After the installation ceremony Gwen introduced guests and new members. She then thanked many members for their contributions. Special mention was given to Sharon Morgan who was retiring for the position of building manager after many years of service. (See Gwens statement attached).

The meeting ended with holiday songs accompanied by Kathy Parker on the piano.

The meeting adjourned at 1:45.
