June 5, 2018

The meeting was called to order by President Elizabeth MacDonald at the clubhouse at 11:30 am. Other officers present: Vice President Marlene Miller, Treasurer Theda Butkus and Acting Secretary Suzanne Jantzen.

Lynne Rousseau provided an inspirational reading.

The approved minutes of the May EC meeting and the Treasurer's reports were posted on the wall at the back of the room.

Hostesses for the meeting were thanked: Barbara Mitchelson, Colleen Barton, Dianne Conrad and Jen Lazowski.

New members were introduced by Acting Membership Manager Gwen Rhodes. The two new members are Scottie Gibson and Ann Savage. Former member Elizabeth Buckman joined later in the day.

Sally Belangia explained the August golf tournament fundraiser and requested members sign-up to help.

President MacDonald gave the blessing for lunch.

Following lunch Scholarship Chairman Suzanne Gwaltney gave an overview of the Inez Hargrove and the Frank and Violet Cathers scholarships, and introduced the scholarship winners and their families. The Hargrove Scholarship winner Meg Anderson and the Cathers Scholarship winner Sallie Elizabeth Winfrey spoke on their career objectives. Elizabeth plans to attend NC State and major in Fashion Design. She ranks fourth in her graduating class of 103 students. Meg also plans to attend NC State and major in Agriculture Business Management. She ranks sixth in the graduating class. Following the presentation of certificates, Michele Musella, one of the scholarship selection panel judges, presented her grandmother's sewing machine to Elizabeth.

Vice President Marlene Miller conducted the remainder of the meeting and made an announcement about the Garden Club June 19 meeting featuring Jayne Stasser who will make a presentation on recycling at the local, state and national levels. The meeting is open to the public.

Other announcements included Lee Duer who described the Meal of the Month fundraising raffle that will begin with sale of tickets in October. Several chefs are still needed. Jean Chastang announced the Arts Program dragon stepping stone painting workshop fundraiser would be held on June 21, 6:30 pm at the clubhouse and there will be a Fine Arts/Crafts Show and Sale this fall.

The 50/50 raffle drawing was held with Deborah Powers winning the purse. She donated her proceeds to the Cemetery Fund.

There being no further business the meeting adjourned at 1:30 pm.
