Scholarship Luncheon

President Gwen Rhodes called the meeting to order at 11:40. Michelle Musella gave the inspirational reading and Faye Bond led the pledge to the flag.

After a blessing delivered by Jean Chastang, participants enjoyed the potluck lunch.

After lunch, Suzanne Gwaltney thanked the scholarship interviewers, Terrell Scott, Marilyn Hollingsworth, and Michelle Musella for their contribution. She then commented on the quality of the candidates and then presented the scholarships.

The Inez Hargrove scholarship was presented to Cheyenne Jessica Lupton. She will attend NCSU in the fall and major in Chemistry.

The Cather scholarship for the arts was presented to Thomas Price who will attend community college in the fall and will be majoring in music.

After the scholarship awards and a brief break, Gwen called a brief business meeting to order with the following announcements and reminders:

- Reminder of a special meeting at 1pm next Tuesday, June 11th to discuss survey results.
- Reminder to bring scrapbook pictures to the meeting; Gwen is coordinating the scrapbook effort.
- Let Jean Chastang know by 6/7 if you wish to attend the Garden club flower arranging workshop.
- Reminder that all club activities and meetings are open to all members.
- Road cleanup on 6/19 ahead of Croakerfest
- We will not have a Croakerfest booth this year, but we will have a float. Meet at Gwen's (258 Forest Dr Oriental) at 10am on the 27th of June to help decorate.
- Help is needed for the Golf Tournament. See Lee Duer for details.

The meeting was adjourned at 1:45.
