

October 1, 2019 OWC General Meeting

The meeting was called to order at 1:30 by President, Gwen Rhodes. She greeted all the guests.

Lynne Rousseau, Inspirational Reader has returned. Gwen thanked Michelle Musella for filling in for Lynne. Fay Bond led us in the pledge to the flag. Happy Birthday was sung to Fay in celebration of her 96th birthday.

Gwen discussed the importance of participation and “showing up” for club activities. She encouraged everyone to attend to help make the club successful.

The minutes of the previous meeting were read and approved and were posted on the web site. The financial report will be available after the October EC meeting.

Gwen thanked Elaine Wolfinger for her work as our Sunshine Activity Leader and Note Writer.

Program

Lee Duer introduced our guest John Richard, retired physical therapist who gave a talk about back health. The program was very informative and appreciated by our members.

Unfinished Business

Gwen asked for volunteers to bake cookies and man the booth at the OFPMF this weekend. Signup sheets for workshops for the Fall Bazaar were on the tables so members could sign up. Help was needed to prepare for the event.

New Business

Gwen is hosting a new member tea at her house on Oct 7th at 3 PM. EC and Program heads are asked to attend to tell the new members about the programs and answer questions.

Gwen announced that members should park in the parking lot before parking on the street to reduce traffic.

Announcements

Gay Radosevich announced the Christmas Luncheon will be held on Dec 3rd. Tickets are now on sale at Nautical Wheelers and today at the club house. Cost is $15.

The Beaufort Woman’s club invited us to their Architectural Tour on Oct 26th. Cost is $20. Information is posted in the clubhouse.

The meeting was adjourned by Gwen at 2:15.
